TIMMY ADOPTED!

(the paralyzed ferret)

Timmy is going to Oregon. By the time you read this newsletter, if all goes as planned, Timmy will be in the care of a very special person who knows just how to take care of him. He will even have a couple of friends to play with too. His new owner is flying in to pick him up in Phoenix and take him to his new forever loving home in Portland, Oregon. We could not be happier for Timmy! He has been such a joy at the Sanctuary, so loving and just a pleasure to care for. We were able to meet all his special needs thanks to your support. It will be very hard to say goodbye, but this is why we are here, to find loving homes for special needs animals in order to make room for other emergency situations. Thank you to all who helped to care for Timmy while he was here with us. Another happy ending! We love you Timmy!!

TRAVELING WITH PETS

My husband and I celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary in September. We decided we would take a five day trip to an RV Park in San Diego, CA. We wanted to take Bailey, the Chocolate Lab with us. One month before we even got on the road I contacted the RV Park and inquired about their rules for dogs. I also emailed ahead to find out which restaurants, beaches and stores were dog friendly. All were very helpful and replied quickly. I also looked on the county website of the area to make sure of the "dog laws". Then I took a look at his dog tags. He had his current rabies tag, license and a tag with his name and home phone number. He is micro chipped, but I thought if someone found him wandering around, it would be better if they could just contact me quickly before taking him to a shelter that could scan him. I decided to get another tag made ($4.99 at Olsen's Grain) with the our cell phone number that we would have with us. I did not put his name on it so I could use it on the other dogs when I needed it. Before traveling with your pet, make sure of the leash laws and breed restriction for not only the destination but for counties you will be traveling through. All states and counties are not the same. By the way, there are many clean, dog friendly beaches and restaurants in San Diego. Good Traveling!!

Greyhounds

"Handsome, strong male, looking for a loving home. Enjoy running still in my retirement years. I do the "tuxedo look" very well. Check me out by contacting:

EDDIE & MURPHY

One big happy family!

Tiffany and Gary wanted to show off their newly adopted ferrets. As you can see, they are “one big happy family. “The room they are living in is definitely ferret proof. It looks like a little ferret nursery.” We introduced them to Oso, the dog, which went famously. Eddie walked all over Oso and Murphy was pretty indifferent. We love them so much already,” says Tiffany and Gary.
