This Newsletter is Dedicated In Loving Memory of Trevor Wayne Hammond

We want to dedicate this entire newsletter to Trevor, son of Rise and Heather. Some of you may know this loving family and some may not. Their family have been lovers and savers of animals all of their lives. At the service for Trevor I especially liked the story about how he stopped the truck to make sure a frog got safely off the road. His love and respect of animals really came through many other stories too. This loss of such a young life makes you want to hug your family more. I want to repeat what was written in the order of service.

Hold your loved ones close today, Whisper in their ear, Tell them that you love them, And you'll always hold them dear. For tomorrow is promised to no one. Young and old alike, And today may be your last chance, To hold you loved ones tight.

Trevor entered into this life on April 16, 1987 in Cottonwood, AZ and Entered into rest on May 28, 2009 in Livingston, Kentucky.

EMMA, WE LOVINGLY CALL HER MOOMA!

First of all we would like to thank All the people who sent all the generous donations for Emma. Big and small amounts have all added up and made it a lot easier on the sanctuary budget to have the funds for her goat milk. She is now 3 months old and is getting one bottle a day which only costs $16.00 every 3 days. That really helps. She is now eating calf manna mixed with a very small amount of cracked corn and timothy hay. We want to find Emma a wonderful home where she will not be "eaten" to put it bluntly. She would make a wonderful pet and could be bred to produce another cute calf and then provide some nice milk for a family. I am hoping that by the time you receive this newsletter she will be going into a new home. Then someone could really say yes to the question, GOT MILK?

Jeze and Jinx ADOPTED!

Finally!! Jeze and Jinx have been with us since June of 2008. They are now in their forever home with two other ferrets. We are so happy for Jeze and Jinx. Here is a little story of how they are doing in their new home directly from their new mom. Jeze is my little shadow water rat! We have to be especially careful with her because she loves...simply loves to get right up under our feet and beg to be picked up! Jinx has officially stolen a stuffed gag gift stuffed doggy that I gave James several years ago on Valentine's Day. This is now his official wrestling partner/baby to drag around the house. Love to hear the stories of the happy endings!!

POPCORN AND ROGUE STILL WAITING!!

We have other ferret pairs waiting for their forever home too. How about Popcorn and Rogue. Popcorn was in a home with children who were too young for a ferret and they did not handle him very nicely so whenever you try to pick him up you have to let him smell you first or he will bite. Rogue was brought to us because of a house foreclosure and they could not take her to the new place. She is very sweet and has bonded with Popcorn and likes to sleep with her head on his belly.

DONNIE & MARIE ADOPTED!!!

I am pleased to announce that Donnie and Marie are now in their new forever loving home! They have gone to a 25 acre ranch in eastern Arizona to a property that has a nice spring running through it. Wow! what a great way to live for a couple like Donnie and Marie. We love the happy endings like this.

MIDAS our Norwegian Dwarf Goat is still waiting for his forever home and has been a little lonely. He is a little smelly but he has what it takes to expand your herd of smaller goats. He is very friendly and cute.

TRIX CROSSES OVER THE RAINBOW BRIDGE

TRIX, a beautiful black rabbit arrived in the first year of the sanctuary which was 2001. When we would go to our adoption days at the Petsmart in Prescott we would put her in a nice big cage while people would look her over. "She is so pretty," people would say. Then we would open the door of the cage and she would attack like a vicious rabid animal! Needless to say, she did not show well. We brought her a couple times with the same result. She seemed to be saying that she wanted to stay at the sanctuary with her other rabbit friends. She got her wish and was with us for 8 years and she was an adult when she arrived so she was a very senior rabbit. I am sure that Jack, her best friend will miss her greatly as we do too.
